Dear Bill

To keep you inspired about software quality during this long winter season, we'd like to share the Conference 2014 Archive with you. You will find the PNSQC 2014 Proceedings, all the invited speaker videos as well as the speaker and paper presenter slides that are currently available. We are grateful for your continuing support and look forward to PNSQC 2015 - Brewing Software Quality, October 13-15 in Portland, Oregon.

We welcome newcomers to contact us about getting more involved in helping organize the conference. If you're interested in joining a committee or volunteering onsite at PNSQC 2015, let us know! We will continue to host meetups throughout the year in a variety of cities and provide support to our partners and sponsors in promoting software quality.

One of our partners, Agile Open Northwest, has opened registration to their open space event. Agile Vision, February 11-13, 2015 will be hosted in Portland, Oregon, at the price of $250 this event will sell out soon.

The mission of PNSQC is to enable knowledge exchange to produce higher quality software.
